Sheriff Told Quartet Enters Home in Occupant's Absence.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR
KENTON, Nov. 22.—Mrs. M. and Mrs. Ned Hartwick were away from their home yesterday afternoon, four men who declared themselves "enforcement" agents, forced entrance into the Hartwick residence, searched the rooms and then disappeared, according to the story related by Hartwick's seven-year-old son, who arose from a sick bed and frightened, run barefooted several blocks to where the grandmother was employed.

The quartet entered the home shortly after Mrs. Hartwick had left to drive her husband to the work. The one who had been in the house was left in bed in an upstairs room.

Sheriff Morton Anster, to whom the incident was related, expressed his belief that the intruders might possibly not have been enforcement agents. He said that three state men had been in the city but he understood they had left that morning.

Recently offenders and four men posing as enforcement agents, entered the home of a farmer in southwestern Hardin county and upon leaving took a shotgun with them.

HARDING TEAM IN LAST GAME OF YEAR

Buckeye Association Grid Teams Hold Edge Over Ohio Conference Rivals

SPRINGFIELD HEAVY FAVORITE TO HAND DEFEAT TO LOCALS

Presidents Outweighed by Opposition; One Regular on Hospital List.

TWENTY-FOUR Presidents, and the usual contingent of managers and coaches departed from Marion early today for the late of the Springfield Wildcat. This afternoon these same Presidents will attempt to outsmart the crafty Wildcats aggregation and score the second victory of the season. Harding will be called upon to exercise all of the football tricks known to the team to cope with the heavier and apparently classier eleven. The locals will enter the game a decided underdog and a one-sided win for the out-of-town team will not be surprising.

With two exceptions the Bohyemen are in good condition for a tough game. Bill Jevan, first string guard and Bo Guthrie, reserve back are nursing injuries. Jevan will probably play at least a share of the game but Guthrie will not be in uniform.

Harding will be outweighed in several positions by the Springfield players. The local backfield will average about 20 pounds lighter than the opposing backs.

The probable starting lineups for the game follow:

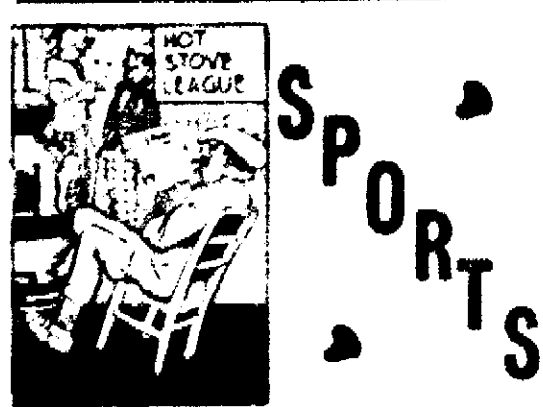

Harding	Pos.	Springfield
Alspach	LT	Shingledecker
Clay	LT	Moss
Eckenbarger	LG	Gordon
Williams	C	Corle
Houseworth	RG	Neer
Smith	RT	Gosling
Sloan	RE	Williams

TO JOIN CONFERENCE

By The Associated Press. CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 22—Application for admission to the Ohio Athletic conference will be made by John Carroll university, officials of the school have announced. John Carroll has signed a contract to meet Case School of Applied Science in football in 1931 and 1932.

TUBBY SIGNS TO FIGHT

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, Nov. 22—Jerry "Tubby" Griffiths, Sioux City, Ia., heavyweight, has been matched with W. L. "Young" Stribling, of Georgia, for the ten round final bout of the Chicago stadium's next show which will be held December 12.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK

THE student publication of Denison university, The Denisonian, has created some talk of a future with a vigorous editorial "What's Wrong With Denison Football?" The publication does not attempt to lay the blame on any particular person but it does a lot of hinting that it's not as it should be in the athletic department of the school.

The paper assumes the attitude that perhaps the college is playing out of its class. This attitude apparently is nearer correct than any other. It is no secret that at the time of formation and at various times since some members of the conference have hinted that the league would be better if Denison were not a member, its place being taken by some school which actually supports a stronger grid outfit than that boasted by the Granville institution. With the addition of DePauw and Wabash colleges in Indiana to the playing schedule of the B. A. A. Denison is likely to more than ever to regularly feel the sting of defeat in its grid activities.

Perhaps the Buckeye league would do well to form some kind of an agreement whereby Denison could be replaced by a school with stronger football teams. In basketball Denison will hold its own with any B. A. A. school but in football the Big Red is becoming more or less of a doormat.

When Harding's football team finishes the game today with Springfield it will have completed a rigorous nine game schedule that has been but one open date since Sept. 20. The Presidents started off the year with the tough Toledo Central outfit losing 31-0. The team continued straight on through until Nov. 1 without a rest. After the Mansfield game they were given a week off in which to prepare for the Shelby encounter. With that game over the team started work for the game with the Wildcats today.

The results of the season here have been poor, much too poor for a school the size of Harding. This, I believe can not be charged altogether to the team itself. It has been asked to play too many tough games on successive Saturdays. Only a team of unusual strength could have gone through

JUNIOR LEAGUE HAS WON 11 STARTS TO 3 FOR LARGER LOOP

May Be Eight-Four After Denison-Wooster Battle Today.

BY LATHROP MACK. Associated Press Sports Writer. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22—The Buckeye conference ends the 1930 football season with a goodly margin over the Ohio conference. Its parent organization, in games played between colleges of the two leagues.

With only the Denison-Wooster game today to be decided, the five-team Buckeye conference had won eight of the 11 games played with members of the 19-team Ohio conference. Since Wooster threatened to defeat Denison, the Buckeye member at Granville today the end of the campaign will probably find the count eight to four in favor of the Buckeye conference.

Ohio Wins Two. Ohio university, defending champion on the Buckeye, defeated Western Reserve 47 to 0 and Muskingum 32 to 0. Ohio Wesleyan, runner-up last year and prospective runner-up to Ohio U. again this year after their game at Delaware today, defeated Reserve 41 to 14 and Dayton 7 to 6, but lost to Heidelberg, the Ohio conference's strongest team, 25 to 13. Cincinnati of the Buckeye won from Marietta 20 to 7, and Miami defeated Ashland 48 to 0 and Oberlin 12 to 0. Even Denison, the weakest Buckeye member, won from Oberlin 19 to 10 but lost to Muskingum 25 to 0, and to Xavier 13 to 0.

Of the nine Ohio conference teams met and defeated by the Buckeye teams, Heidelberg, Muskingum, Dayton and Ashland were undefeated in their own back yard, being the only Ohio conference members which did not lose conference games. Xavier and Oberlin Continued on Page Fifteen the Harding schedule this season with a better than average record.

What is of more interest to the followers of Harding at present is not what the team has been asked to go through this year but what teams are going to be scheduled for next season.

If Harding is to compile a record next year that will be a credit to the school the schedule makers had better drop some of the tough games from the playing list. The players have done their best this year and will continue to do so but the schedule this year asked too much of them.

Former Light Heavy Champ Takes Decision From Fish Peddler.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, Nov. 22—It is boxing legend King Levinsky's name that has been commemorated in today's fight by Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia, former light heavyweight champion of the world and now a seeker of heavy weight honors.

Loughran, one of the finest boxers in the trade, turned loose all his skill and ring cunning last night to outpoint the former fish peddler of Chicago's west side.

Like Jimmy Slattery, who lost an unpopular decision to Levinsky two weeks ago, Loughran banded his left hand into the King's face with almost monotonous regularity. He even went so far as to mix it with Levinsky at times, something that was supposed to be extremely dangerous and he did it with outstanding success. Levinsky's nose was badly swollen at the finish and his whole face bore signs of Loughran's marksmanship.

BATTLES TODAY TO COMPLETE SCHEDULE OF BIG TEN GAMES

Purple Out To Check Title-Bound Rush of Irish-Wolves Play Chicago.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, Nov. 22—Western conference football reached the end of the road today, with Northwestern's bid against Notre Dame supplying the punch to the day's schedule.

Northwestern, already qualified for at least 50 per cent. of the Big Ten title, was more than hopeful of bringing to an abrupt halt Notre Dame's rush toward a national gridiron championship claim.

The Irish, however, were favored to take care of the ambitious Wildcats.

Michigan faced Chicago at Ann Arbor, Mich., in the most important number of the strictly Big Ten schedule. All the Wolverines needed to share the 1890 championship with Northwestern was a victory over the former Maroons and they were odds-on choice to make the grade.

Illinois and Ohio State were down for another installment of their growing rivalry. The Buckeyes, by their victories over Navy and Pittsburgh, were a mild choice, but the Illini, playing at home, were accorded a chance to make an upset out of it. Purdue, which missed retaining the title it won last year, by a margin of two points, had Indiana as its guest in a strictly Hoosier piece of business, and Wisconsin entertained Minnesota in their traditional game. Purdue was a long favorite to whip the Hoosiers, and Wisconsin ruled a slight choice over the Gophers.

Iowa went into the finish of its year of penance, meeting Nebraska in the finale of the season today.

EVANSTON IN UPROAR AS CROWD GATHERS FOR IRISH CONTEST

Ohio-Illinois in Fight for Berth in First Division of Big Ten.

By The Associated Press. EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 22—Through the dunes of today's Notre Dame's rough play today to match their unbeaten gridiron cast against the state of Northwestern's Wildcats. Everything for which two great football teams have sweated and planned hinged on the contest, what until about ten days ago was sedate old Evanston. Each sought to Dyche stadium seven straight victories over first class opposition, and while the band from St. Bend was favored—perhaps because Knute Rockne's Notre Dame eleven almost always are favorites Northwestern stacked up as the one team, at least to date, with a real chance of wrecking the Irish drive to another national championship.

Ordinarily a calm campus college place, Evanston today was in such an uproar as it has been before known. All of Dyche stadium's 49,000 seats were gone. Eating places were swamped as night and the prospect for today wasn't even good.

Coach Rockne last night indicated the Irish regulars would undertake the job of beating Northwestern, right from the start. Coach Hanley of Northwestern had two possible changes in mind. Dick Fencil was listed to start at right end instead of Larry Ophright who has a lame arm. While Bob Engerbrissen was the choice for left tackle instead of Jack Riley.

By The Associated Press. CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 22—A first division berth in the Big Ten football championship berth was the goal of Ohio State and Illinois as they renewed their rivalry at Memorial stadium today. A victory for the Buckeyes would give them a 500 per cent. increase for the Illini would save that poor season with a 400 average.

It was the final game of the great college football career of Princeton.

FINAL MARKET SESSION DULL

Small Number of Stocks Only Sign of Life at Week-End.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Strength of a small number of stocks and special interest in the oil and sugar markets of the day, Friday's closing session failed to carry over into the early morning session. The absence of outside demand stocks churned in a narrow price range, with a point separating the two sessions as prominent as the "gas" price war.

General importance was attached to the fact that the market closed at a point which again upset the balance of the day. The "gas" price war, which had been going on since the 19th, was a factor in the market's movement. Under these conditions, the market closed at a point which again upset the balance of the day. WHEAT PRICE GOES UPWARD

Chicago Market Advances in Response to Rise at Buenos Aires.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Jumps of as much as 5¢ a bushel in wheat quotations at Buenos Aires today led to brisk early advances for wheat values here. Argentine shippers were reported as buying wheat for future deliveries on a big scale with Liverpool advising that markets abroad were also affected by decreases in world visible supply figures.

Opening at 11:15 a. m., Chicago wheat showed an additional rise later. Corn started 1/4¢ higher and scored subsequent further gains.

More than 6c a bushel soaring of Argentine wheat quotations was reported today as compared with 48 hours previous, and word was also at hand that exporters in Argentina were meeting with more or less difficulty in obtaining wheat for immediate shipment, with uncertainty prevailing as to the Argentine crop outlook. Meanwhile, the world's available supply of wheat was estimated today to have decreased 13,698,000 bushels in October compared with an increase of 74,818,000 bushels in September and a gain of 55,090,000 bushels in October last year.

Contributing additional encouragement to friends of higher prices were advices that the new winter wheat crop outlook in Europe is not entirely favorable.

Corn and oats rose with wheat. Provisions responded to grain strength.

EVANSTON IN UPROAR AS CROWD GATHERS

Wesley Foster, Ohio State star, and he was expected to close it gloriously by leading his mates to victory.

By The Associated Press
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 22.—Continuing one of the Midwest's oldest football rivalries, Minnesota and Wisconsin met today in their fourth football game closing the season for both and affording opportunity for either to share fourth place in the Western Conference list.

Almost paramount to the game was the question as to whether Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite had been or might be asked to submit his resignation. Thistlethwaite, George Little, director of athletics and the Wisconsin athletic council denied last night such action.

MISSIONARY LEADER ADDRESSES 150 HERE

Dr. Robert E. Speer of New York Speaks at Meeting in Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Robert E. Speer, senior secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions of New York City, one of the most prominent laymen in the United States, addressed 150 laymen and ministers of Marion and the county, yesterday at a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Speer's lecture was built around his experiences in the far east last year, calling attention to the great changes that have been wrought through the missionary programs of the churches in the last few decades.

He was chiefly interested in pointing out the difficulties missionaries experienced 50 years ago as compared with those of today. To illustrate, he mentioned the recent honor the Japanese paid Rev. Griffith, the first missionary to go to Japan 50 years ago. At that time, those who accepted Christianity were hated together and taken to jail. A half century later a great company of Japanese met, the most respected of Japan's citizens, men of the army, of the navy, and both houses of parliament, to do honor to Rev. Griffith and his great missionary achievement.

Some of the religions of the Orient are seeking to pattern their teachings after the Christian religion, Dr. Speer said. Quotations are copied out of the Bible and inserted in their religious books, such as the Golden Rule, and whole passages of the Sermon on the Mount. The Orientals claim that these excerpts belong to their religion.

Dr. Speer marked India's Gandhi as a man who saw his ideal in Christ, and is seeking to win by Christ's methods. Dr. Speer said that he believes Christ would offer the same non-resistance that Gandhi is offering, if he were here today.

TURKEY TO BE LOW IN PRICE THURSDAY

Popular Thanksgiving Fowls
To Sell Dressed at About 35 Cents a Pound.

Turkey will continue to predominate in Thanksgiving menus this year, local market authorities said today. One of the principal reasons for the continued popularity of the "turk" is the lower price level prevailing this year.

Dressed turkeys will retail for an average of 35 cents a pound in Marion and vicinity this year. This is between eight and 12 cents below the prevailing prices here last year, which in turn were considerably lower than those of the preceding year.

Turkeys sold as high as 65 cents a pound, dressed, during the World war.

Between 1,200 and 1,500 fowls are expected to find their way to the steaming Thanksgiving platter in Marion. The majority of these birds will come from Marion, Delaware and Morrow counties.

Indications are that there will be plenty of "fixins" at moderate prices to accompany the turk on Thanksgiving. Cranberries this week registered a decrease in price, while pumpkins for pies took a similar course.

Otherwise the market has been practically unaffected by the pre-Thanksgiving trade. Butter recovered a cent after a series of sharp price drops that reduced quotations to 44-45 cents.

Eggs jumped five cents a dozen early this week, making a total of nine cents increase within two weeks. The present price range is 44 to 48 cents a dozen.

The Stars Say-- For Sunday, Nov. 23

SUNDAY'S horoscope reads: "A day of triumph and achievement conditions. For all practical purposes, the day is a day of triumph and achievement. With some substantial changes made in these conditions, sudden change may be involved, but these should be manipulated with discretion and proper preparation."

Those whose birthday it is may be confronted by a year of entirely new prospects and opportunities, with some prospects of substantial change, but these should not be hastily embraced. Well directed, there are excellent promises for substantial connections, but be on guard against some elements of secrecy. A child born on this day should be versatile and talented in the way of putting over large and strategic operations through shrewd and substantial manipulation. He should make success in diplomatic affairs or with secret organizations or combines.

For Monday, Nov. 24: MONDAY'S astrological chart is an intriguing one, with the baffling and mysterious planets in mutual aspect, a predicament fortified by the aspect of Uranus to the convertible Mercury. All are harbingers of change and variability, with the promise of unforeseen and precipitate events. While the opportunities are read as favorable, much depends on sagacity and wise manipulations, who waitness against elements of surprise and intrigue. Personal matters and tendencies are favorable.

Those whose birthday it is are on the eve of an intriguing and possibly adventurous year, with matters out of the ordinary uppermost. There are splendid opportunities, and well attuned faculties for managing them, but much depends on the practical manner in which surprise and intrigue are manipulated. Personal affiliations should be particularly happy. A child born on this day may be ingenious, adventurous, romantic and independent in thought and action, and may attain a place in the public regard, although possibly lacking in practical essentials.

To Be Thankful

A SERMONETTE
BY REV. W. MARTEL GEORGE
Pastor Wesley M. E. Church

Sing unto the Lord, O ye saints of His and give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness. Psalm 136

It is an hour like this for what is there to be thankful? The world is in confusion with wars and rumors of wars. Hatred and vengeance predominate in our international relationships. There is a great depression in our own country as well as in the world. As individuals we seem to be at sea in our thinking and a spirit of pessimism is spreading throughout the nation as to the outlook of these endeavors. Yet there is something for us to be thankful for in the midst of the chaos of the world. The living figure of the Christ is emerging clearer and clearer above the horizon. God still lives. His presence is with us. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and cometh down from the Father of lights with whom is no variableness neither shadow of turning. James 1:17

The English word "thankful" comes from the Anglo-Saxon word "thankful." To be thankful for blessing received and benefits received is to be thoughtful and mindful of them. A thankful heart will sing praises unto the Lord, for the mercies of God and the unspeakable gift of his dear son, Jesus, our Savior.

The greatest longing of the human soul is not satisfied in the pursuit of wealth or pleasure. The only lasting satisfaction comes through the establishment of peace. Peace of mind where doubt is dispelled. Peace of soul with the realization that God is with us. A right conception of God is the only basis upon which a soul can find lasting and permanent satisfaction.

We have heard in times past great emphasis on the fact that God is omnipotent, or that He is omniscient, or again that He is omnipresent. To think of Him in any one of these terms alone does not express God as He is. Think of God of power, a God of all knowledge, a God who is everywhere present but possessing these attributes alone. The text suggests that God is a God of holiness. We are enjoined to remember that added to all other attributes He is a Holy God full of love, mercy and compassion. To remember this is to make Him Christ-like. How glad we should be that God is like Jesus.

God's laws are absolute and do not waver. In the physical world we meet constantly such fixed laws as friction and gravitation.

The same is true in the moral realm. "Whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap." "The soul that sinneth it shall die." The invitation of God is just as true. "God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Let us give thanks.

Health Commissioner Tells of Milk Sickness

Report of Marion City-County District Tells Ohio Director of Tests with White Snake Root Following Outbreak of Malady Here.

When the only case reported in the state. They were attributed to a weed known as white snake root which is eaten by cattle and horses. The disease is known as milk sickness. The milk in turn contains toxins which cause milk sickness. The poison is carried not only in the milk itself but in butter, cheese and even in the fresh milk of the affected animal, according to Dr. Siffrt.

Smilinger fed white snake root to a cow whose milk he later fed to five rabbits and six guinea pigs. All the rabbits died while the guinea pigs became sick but later recovered. Another rabbit was fed the weed itself and it too died while a cat was fed the meat of one of the dead rabbits died. The death of one of the rabbits was fed to a guinea pig and while it became sick it recovered.

Cases in State
In Marion county, the cow became sick, its muscles stiffened and she had a severe case of tremors. Smilinger reported to Dr. Siffrt. Later the cow died.

"Cases of milk sickness are rare to modern physicians, but not many years ago it was no uncommon occurrence for entire families to be stricken," Dr. Siffrt said today.

The disease is limited to the United States and the first printed account is credited to Drake of Cincinnati in 1818. Its occurrence was early associated with uncultivated land and cotton wood pastures, and as grazing animals were first affected attention naturally was directed to point here and it was not until after numerous plants and weeds had been suspected and eliminated as a cause that white snake root was incriminated.

Disease Disappears
"Just about the time modern scientific methods of research began an investigation so much of the land was cleared and under cultivation that milk sickness as one of the major problems of rural life ceased to exist."

The poisonous element in white snake root is believed to be aluminum phosphate since the plant is one of the few which takes up aluminum from the soil according to Dr. Siffrt.

Symptoms of the disease in man are languor and fatigue, nausea and vomiting. The tongue is swollen, red and dry, the pulse irregular, the blood pressure low and the temperature subnormal, according to the paper which Dr. Siffrt will read before the health commissioners. If the patient survives, there may follow a prolonged period of debility he says.

In cattle, the disease first causes a slowing up of movement, a listless gait and constipation. Muscles become hardened and stiff and the neck twisted to one side. It is almost invariably fatal in animals except in milk-producing cows where a large portion of the toxic product is eliminated through the milk.

Young children are not as susceptible as older persons for some unknown reason. Dr. Siffrt has found after a study of the disease.

Methods of Treatment
Alcohol is given as part of the treatment since it has a marked affinity for the active principle of the plant. It should be given to the intoxicating point according to authorities whom Dr. Siffrt quotes. Sodium chloride, sodium carbonate, castor oil, glucose and dextrose are other chemicals and foods used in the treatment. Process while morphine and other drugs are used to control restlessness.

White snake root, while abundant in many localities, is eaten by cattle only when less tempting morsels are absent. During last summer's drought the weed flourished in shaded woods where cattle strayed to find pasture.

Milk from cattle affected with tremors is not dangerous if mixed with a large supply of unaffected milk. Dr. Siffrt says. Dairies which gather thousands of gallons of milk daily so thoroughly mix their product that the poison is diluted to a degree where it is harmless. Only where milk is taken directly from an infected cow is the drinker liable to contract the disease.

For that reason, milk sickness is confined largely to rural districts and cases are rare in the city where milk is handled through dairies.

The chassis of the new Chevrolet Six has also been refined and advanced in a number of different ways. The frame is heavier, deeper and stronger than before. There is a smoother operating, long lived clutch; a sturdier front axle; an entirely new steering mechanism; an easier shifting transmission. In fact, every vital feature of the new car has been made better to provide more thorough satisfaction for the owner.

And along with these improvements, Chevrolet offers the smooth performance of a 50-horsepower, six-cylinder motor—four long semi-elliptic springs—four hydraulic shock absorbers—a safety gasoline tank at the rear of the car—and an economy of operation not surpassed by any automobile.
